LACONIA –Homecoming weekend is here! Sachem pride can be felt everywhere, everyday throughout Laconia; in the classrooms, on the ball fields and on the court. During homecoming weekend that pride can be also heard in the cheering of spectators of the parade and at the games being played! Don't miss any of the Sachem teams playing this weekend!

Beginning on Friday, Sept. 21, the annual Homecoming Parade will take off from Laconia High School at 4 p.m. Make sure to find a great viewing spot to see the incredible floats built by each grade level.

Find a comfortable spot in the stands or at the fence on Friday night at 7 p.m. at Fitzgerald Field, for the football game against Campbell High School. Return on Saturday, Sept. 22, for field hockey action against Bishop Brady at 10 a.m. Stick around to catch the boys soccer game against Somersworth at noon and the girls soccer game against Prospect Mountain at 2:30 p.m. The weather could be chilly for some, so if you're looking for a warmer seat to enjoy a great game, the LHS girls volleyball team will be playing Kennett High School in the Laconia High School gym at 12:15 p.m.
